

Air 1 is a very important asset to our community, it plays Christian music that is very much needed and I think it would affect our community in a very negative way if it were replaced by some kind of other programming. We need this kind of music.